The Four-Way-Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity of service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and dignifying by each Rotarian of this occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third: The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business, and community life;

Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men and women united in the ideal of service.

Club Publicity:

The purpose of club publicity is to keep Augusta West Rotary's activities in the news and to make them available in all media segments. Tom Grant who is serving as the chair of this committee has recently posted a video to view of last week's guest speaker presentation on the Ferst Foundation. It has been posted on facebook and youtube. Thank you Tom for the idea and making this happen!

Georgia Rotary Student

David Thorsson, our 2009-2010 GRSP student, will arrive at 9:15 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 6, at the Augusta Regional Airport. Please try to be there so that we will have a nice welcoming party for him. An official September welcoming reception is being planned. Stay tuned for more details.

David, 23, is from Valbo, Sweden. He will be 24 on Dec. 26. He is interested in studying American Literature, philosophy, and psychology. He has spent a year working and traveling in Australia. His hobbies are reading, socializing with friends, traveling, working out, ice hockey, and soccer. He's a psychology student at Sweden's Uppsala University. David was born in St. Joseph, Mich., while his dad – an executive with a Swedish steel company – was assigned to the company's U.S. operation. David learned about GRSP through his mother, a travel agent in Valbo with U.S.-based Carlson Wagonlit Travel. David's family returned from Michigan to Sweden when he was 3, so he doesn't remember much about living in America. David has an older sister, 27, who lives in Brussels, Belgium, and a younger brother who is 16.

You can reach David via email at david.thorsson@gmail.com.

Rotary International

Overview of Rotary International's leadership structure

Clubs: Rotarians are members of more than 32,000 Rotary clubs, which belong to the global association of Rotary International (RI). Each club elects its own officers and enjoys considerable autonomy within the framework of Rotary's constitution and bylaws.
Districts: Clubs are grouped into approximately 530 RI districts, each led by a district governor, who is an RI officer and leads about 50 clubs. The district administration, including assistant governors and various committees, guides and supports the clubs.

The RI Boards: The 19-member RI Board of Directors, which includes the RI president and president-elect, meets quarterly to establish policies. Traditionally, the RI president, who is elected annually, develops a theme and emphasis for the year.

The Secretariat: RI is headquartered in Evanston, Illinois, USA, with seven international offices in Argentina, Australia, Brazil, India, Japan, Korea, and Switzerland. The office of Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland (RIBI), located in England, serves clubs and districts in that region. The Secretariat's active managing officer is the general secretary, who heads a 650-member staff working to serve Rotarians worldwide.

Council on Legislation: The Council on Legislation, Rotary's "parliament," meets every three years to deliberate and act upon all proposed enactments and resolutions submitted by clubs, district conferences, the RIBI Conference or General Council, and the RI Board. The Council itself also makes proposals.

The Trustees manage all business of the Foundation. The trustee chair, who serves for one year as chair, is the head of the Trustees. Each trustee is appointed to a four-year term.
